We have spent this week building relationships and learning lots of new things about every third grader. The first full week has been all about routines and procedures. Next week we plan to settle into a scheduled routine. Thank you for having your child at school in time for breakfast at 7:35 and no later than 7:50. We look forward to seeing our bright eyed students, well rested and ready to learn! Thank you for communicating any end of the day changes to the office. We will also communicate through Class Dojo sharing fun activities going on in our classes and reminders throughout the week. Please watch for any personal messages to you about your child as well. Have a great v
